DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

1. Claims 5, 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claims 5 and 9 lack antecedent basis for "the compaction condition F". Claim 9 also lacks antecedent basis for torque, since claim 7 does not call for rotation. Claim 9 has been examined as if it depends from claim 8 rather than claim 7.

Claim 7 is unclear since it sets forth several definitions for the compaction completion; it is not clear when the compaction is complete

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3673

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ogawa (U.S. Patent number 3,772,892). Ogawa teaches a sand pile driving method wherein compaction is completed when the pile cross section reaches a given state.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 7-207653.

The JP reference teaches the process of compacting by rotation and pressing; driving a first plurality of poles, and driving a second plurality of piles (i.e. the array of piles shown in figure 4 inherently includes first and second plurality; the second plurality is deemed to be the inner row). The JP reference fails to explicitly disclose the second plurality between the previously driven first plurality.

The selection of any order of performing process steps is prima facie obvious in the absence of new or unexpected results; therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified the JP process to have included driving the second plurality between the previously driven first plurality as called for in claim 10. (See In re Burhans, 154 F.2d 690, 69 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1946))

2. Claims 1-4, and 13 are allowed.

3. Claims 5, 8, and 9 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

4. Claims 11 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

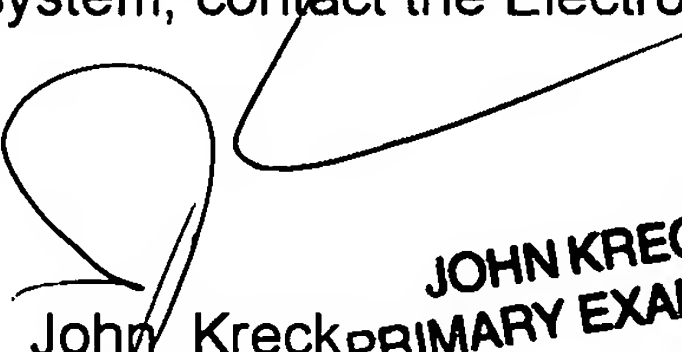

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record fails to disclose or fairly suggest the process of driving a sand pile wherein the compacting time is controlled based on a driving torque.
